

Tai Chi Youth Code of Ethics

A Code of Ethics for Board Members

As a member of the TCY Board of Trustees I will:

1. Consider myself a trustee of the organization and do my best to ensure that the agency is well maintained, financially secure, growing, and operating in the best interests of our members.
2. Participate fully in board meetings and actions.
3. Respect the other members of the TCY Board and the TCY Members I serve.
4. Keep well informed of developments that re relevant to issues that may come before the board.
5. Recognize that all authority is vested in the board when it meets in legal session and not with individual board members.
6. Refer member or staff issues to the proper officer or committee.
7. Recognize that the board member's job is to ensure that Tai Chi Youth is well managed,, not to manage the agency.
8. Declare any conflicts of interest between my personal life and my position on the board, and to avoid voting on issues that are a conflict of interest.
9. Do my best to continue to grow personally and professionally in order to best serve the organization.

As a member of the board I will not:

1. Be critical of fellow board members.
2. Use the organization for my personal advantage.
3. Discuss the confidential proceedings of the board outside board meetings.
4. Interfere with the duties of the administrator or undermine the administrator's authority.

Tai Chi Youth nonprofit education corporation